

DOMAINE CABIRAU

TECHNICAL NOTES

DOMAINE CABIRAU 2017 "SERGE & MARIE"

After 27 years importing wine, HPS President Dan Kravitz took the plunge and purchased his own vineyard in Roussillon. Named Cabirau after the vineyard's original designation, the domaine is in the town of Maury, on a hillside below the ancient Cathar fortress of Queribus.

Named "SERGE & MARIE" after vigneron Serge Soulatge (who tends to Dan's vines) and winemaker Marie Verges of the VTV cooperative (of which Dan is now a full-fledged member!)

VINEYARDS

Nearly 23 acres in total: 15.2 Grenache, 1.5 Syrah, 3.6 Carignan, 2.4 Macabeu. Vineyards are planted in the village of Maury in soils dominated by black schist. Parcels vary in age, and include about 13 acres of 25-30 year old vines, 2 acres of 40 year old vines, 4 acres of 65 year old vines and 3 acres of Carignan planted in 2009.

TASTING NOTES

The softness of Grenache is balanced by the mineral backbone extracted from the schistous soils. The Syrah and Carignan add pronounced spicy and peppery components. Intense yet subtle...
